

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 1 Mrs Davies	Ryan de Bruin	Ayaka Yamaguchi	Dillon Gamble
	For Ryan's positive and diligent attitude to learning at school. As a result Ryan has had many highlights and achievements.	For Ayaka's outstanding attitude and achievement this year. Ayaka is a great role model to others.	Dillon has been an excellent class member this year. He is cheerful, thoughtful and loves to participate. Dillon has also made excellent progress in all curriculum areas.
Room 2 Mrs Burry	Max Walker	Isla Ballantine	Molly Bloy
	Excellence in all academic areas.	Excellence in reading, maths and oral language.	Demonstrating all of our school values on a daily basis.
Room 3 Mrs Norcliffe	Caleb Thorburn	Olivia Martin	Kyla Elkayem
	Made excellent progress across the curriculum. A reflective learner always being aware of his next steps.	Made excellent progress across the curriculum and has an excellent attitude towards learning.	Consistently demonstrates all St Martins values no matter where she is or what she is doing.
Room 4 Miss Dempster	Marley Purdue	Edie Fisher	Tom den Hollander
	For his amazing efforts in reading, writing and sensible attitude to his learning.	For her impressive passion for learning especially her story writing and reading!	For being a caring, responsible and respectful member of the class all year.

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 5 Miss Risk	Samuel Kenny	Ida Scott	Liam Green
	Exceptional learning across all areas of the curriculum especially Mathematics.	Fantastic learning across all areas of the curriculum especially reading and writing.	Supporting all of St Martins School values. He is always kind and caring towards others and values his learning.
Room 6 Mrs Parsons	Max Groer	Isabella Janssen	Mitchell Cozzone
	Excellent progress in all curriculum areas especially in reading. Consistently displaying school values.	Excellent progress in Literacy. Consistently displaying school values.	Mitchell consistently demonstrates the school values both in and out of the classroom.
Room 7 Miss Keenan	Ben Wood	Rena Oliphant	Lucy Hudson
	Showing consistency in learning and for doing his personal best in all learning areas.	For making exceptional progress in writing this year.	For always showing all the school values - voted by her teacher and her peers.

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 8 Mrs Olorenshaw	Jordan Spiewak	Katie Hickling	Phin Williams
	Jordan has made excellent progress in reading. He loves to read, read read! He is also a respectful and thoughtful member of our class. Thank you Jordan.	Katie loves to learn and has contributed much to the learning in our class. She has brought many interesting items to school. All these things have sparked some clever thinking and curious questions. Thank you Katie.	Phin is a delightful young man who always practices our school values, particularly those of Caring and Respect. Phin, you are a fantastic young fellow and we have loved having you in Room 8.
Room 9 Mrs Davidson	Lenny Greenslade	Lucy Young	Connor Ritchie
	For showing excellence in the area of Mathematics.	Consistently showing her personal best in all learning areas	For always doing your personal best in reading, writing and mathematics. Connor is respectful of others and enjoys the challenge of learning new things.
Room 21 Ms Berry	Hunter Corfield	Grace Billings	Thomas Hudson
	For his all round development in maths, reading and writing. Hunter's great perseverance has paid off.	Has really developed a have a go attitude with her writing. Grace thinks creatively and is always asking questions.	A great responsible, respectful and caring Room 21 student - always listening and organised ready to go with his day's learning.

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 14 Miss Ellis	Fergus Wilson	Abigail Wheeler	Emily Simpson
	Fergus has displayed very good work and study habits across all curriculum areas. He listens and always does his personal best.	Abigail has worked hard and made fantastic progress during the year. Her work is always her personal best.	Emily has followed all of the School Values throughout the year. She is a very helpful, kind, sympathetic, responsible person who is 100% reliable.
Room 15 Miss Clark	Hayden Topperwien	Lucia Tod	Cara Reid
	Consistent high application and achievement in his learning. (This award has already been given to Hayden)	Consistently applies herself to all tasks both in school and out of school achieving highly in each task.	Consistently demonstrated the school value of Learning by applying herself to all tasks both in school and at home and completing each to a very high standard.
Room 16 Miss Toye	Finn Howard	Grace Opie	Ella Forster
	Academic excellence. Excellent attitude. Consistent behaviour and learning. Role model.	Academic excellence. Excellent attitude. Consistent behaviour and learning. Role model.	Ella always demonstrates the school values and is an excellent role model. She is a hard worker and very caring towards others.
Room 17 Mrs Oldridge	Ethan Kepple	Isabella Barrie	Hannah Thorburn
	Ethan is making excellent progress in writing and mathematics this year.	Winner of the Year 3/4 Library Poetry competition and winner of the Year 3/4 Oral competition	Always being a kind and caring friend to everyone.

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 20 Ms Sumer	Jessica Fastier	Anna Crampton	Te Ngutu Kura Taiuru
	For demonstrating excellence in all areas of her learning.	For demonstrating excellence in all areas of her learning.	Consistently following the school values and expectations over the year.
Room 10	Jonas Crellin	Paris Tod	Rosa Opie
	High academic achievement in all areas of learning. Great progress in Inquiry learning and using technology in the classroom.	Outstanding contribution to all school activities. Involved in everything. Excellence in many areas.	Involved in choir, library and very responsible. Always respectful and caring towards others. Constantly striving to achieve her personal best.
Room 11 Mrs Burgess	Findlay Royds	Lauren Scott	Adam Kennedy
	Findlay has been a diligent worker who takes on new learning to consistently lift the level of his achievement. He achieves at a very high standard and shows excellent thinking skills.	Lauren consistently challenges herself to lift her level of achievement. She works at a high standard and consistently produces quality presentations that show thought.	Adam has been a well respected member of Room 11. This is because he accepts all student, is kind, cheerful, tolerant, respectful and highly values learning.
Room 12 Mrs Saxon	Max Croucher	Evie Boyd	Rosie Howard
	For exceptional achievement across all curriculum areas.	For exceptional achievement across all curriculum areas.	For outstanding leadership and example.

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 13 Mrs Dalley	Dominic Muller	Amelia Clausen	Alice Wilson
	Outstanding application and attainment.	Outstanding work habits. Excellent progress in Mathematics and involvement in school.	Leadership and outstanding involvement in school groups. School values.
Room 18 Mrs Pateman	Ben Hitt	Tallulah-Belle Roberts	Jaden Vickers
	For setting a consistently high standard of work across all areas of the curriculum.	For consistently giving her personal best to her school work.	For being an organiser of two major community projects - a sausage sizzle which raised over $600 for Westpac Helicopters and Shave Ya Lid for a Kid which raised over $2600 for Canteen.
Room 19 Mr Pateman	George Sutton	Maia Reid	Ruby Pringle
	For outstanding class leadership and the high level of engagement.	For the high work standard you have set and maintained all year.	For giving your personal best in all areas.

Class	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - boy	For showing consistent learning throughout the year - girl	For showing consistent use of St Martins School values
Room 22 Mr and Mrs Roberts	Christian Askey	Karina Croitoru	Jackson Richardson
	For his contribution and application across all academic, social and sporting areas. Christian has attained a very high academic standard. He is a wonderful role model for others.	For her conscientious approach to learning across all curriculum areas. Karina consistently produces work of a very high standard and displays initiative by understanding independent learning tasks.	For consistently offering his assistance and using his initiative. For Jackson, helping others is a mantra you live by. Well done.
Room 23 Miss McGowan	Alex Clarke	Lilly van Keulen	Willow Jones-Dixon
	For always ensuring he completes the success criteria given in order to reach his Personal Best.	For a meticulous and consistent work ethic across the year.	Being a respectful and caring member of the class at all times.